"Every woman should be filled with shame by the thought that she is a woman."

So, what constitutes "work"? "While the people of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering sticks on the Sabbath day... And the Lord said to Moses, 'The man shall be put to death; all the congregation shall throw stones at him until his death outside the camp.' And all the congregation brought him outside the camp, and stoned him to death with stones, as the Lord commanded Moses." (Numbers 15:32)

Thou shalt not eat cud-chewing rabbits - good thing there aren't any
"The rabbit, though it chews cud, does not have a split hoof; it is unclean to you. And the pig, though it has a split hoof completely divided, does not chew cud; it is unclean to you. You must not eat their meat or touch their carcasses. All creatures who live in the water that do not have fins you are to detest. And since you are to detest them, you must not eat their meat and you must detest their carcasses." (Leviticus 11:6-11) "There are, however, some winged creatures that walk on all fours that you may eat: those that have jointed legs for hopping on the ground. Of these you may eat any kind of locust, katydid, cricket, or grasshopper. But all other winged creatures that have four legs you are to detest." (Leviticus 11:20-23)

God would rather have you kill yourself than be fat.
"Put a knife to your throat if you are given to gluttony." (Proverbs 23:2)

"They will know that I am the Lord when I separate them from each other. But I will spare a few of them from the sword, famine, and plague that I send, so that the nations may acknowledge all their detestable practices. Then they will know that I am the Lord." (Ezekiel 12:15)

"So we cooked my son and ate him. The next day I said, 'Give up your son so we may eat him.' But she had hidden her son." (2 Kings 6:29)

More Christian Family Values "And Gideon had 70 sons, for he had many wives. His concubine, who lived in Shechem, also bore him a son, whom he named Abimelech." (Judges 8:30)

The writers of the bible were careful not to disgrace Gideon - patron of the famous hotel "Gideon's bible" - by mentioning any daughters he might have had, but that is clearly one of the attributes that made him great in the eyes of Christians - out of 71 children; none were female.

Mother-in-laws make great pimps "Whose young woman is that?" (Ruth 2:5) Mom said, "Blessed be the man who took notice of you! Go to him tonight. Wash and perfume yourself and put on your best clothes. When he lies down, note the place where he is lying. Then go and uncover his feet and lie down. He will tell you what to do." Ruth: "Spread a corner of your garment over me, my Lord." "The Lord bless you, my daughter," said the man. So she lay at his feet until morning."

Anyway, they get married and "he went to her" and she gave birth to a male, which was a good thing because if it had been a female, she would have lost her -pardon- her husband's land. (Ruth 2:19, 3, 4)

go to heaven? No.

"Babies, young children, and every person of other so-called 'religions' have been condemned to eternal suffering by the Lord.

"Jesus said unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father but by me." (John 14:6)
Young children aren't capable of understanding that Jesus is their only road to salvation; they will not be received because they have not accepted that Jesus is the Christ. The bible tells us that we can and should pray to him, begging and pleading for mercy, for salvation, admitting that we are sinners who deserve the wrath of God."

"All who are baptized, must first have the gospel preached to them. But what good would be done by preaching to a baby?" (Mark 16:15)

"In all Bible examples of baptism, people were baptized only when they personally had full faith, based on their own understanding of the gospel. Never were they baptized on the basis of someone else's faith, such as their parents. No one else can believe for us, just like no one can be baptized for us. Can babies hear and learn in this way?"

"The servant who knows his master's will and does not get ready or does not do what his master wants will be beaten with many blows. But the one who does not know and does things deserving punishment will be beaten with few blows." (Luke 12:47-48) Careful, this crosses over into a Christian woman's duty to the man who renamed her.

This is one of the passages which has given judicial appointees, such as republican Judge Robert Dierker, footing for positions including: "puke liberals must be stopped from using the courts to pursue their assault on the laws of God," and "notions of sexual abuse, harassment, and discrimination have been selectively raised to advance certain groups' political agendas."

Currently serving in St. Louis, attorneys representing rapists seek to get their cases put on Dierker's docket as he, among a growing number of Christian judges such as Lancaster County District Judge Jeffrey Chevront who recently banned the victim and witnesses from saying the word "rape" during a rape trial, has stated that he will wholeheartedly hear the rapist's side.

He, among other Christian judges, such as Wisconsin State Supreme Court Justice Annette Zeigler whose 2007 campaign was funded by Christian hate groups, has specifically stated that he is dedicated to striking down "anti-racial profiling" and "anti-religious discrimination," and "tolerance" laws.

"If a witness gives false testimony against his brother, then do to him what he intended to do to his brother. You must purge the evil from among you. The rest of the people will hear of the punishment and be afraid, and never again will these evils be among you. Show no pity; life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot." (Deuteronomy 19:19-21)

US Supreme Court 1857. Dred Scott vs. Sanford:

Based on "the laws of his creator," Christian Chief Justice Roger B. Taney declares that the Constitution "excludes people of the Negro race as citizens, thus negroes cannot claim the rights and privileges provided by the Constitution" whether slave or free. Liberals overturned this decision by passing the Thirteenth Amendment.

"When a man beats a male or female slave with a rod and the slave dies immediately, the owner shall be punished. But if the slave survives a day or two, there is no punishment; for the slave is the owner's property." (Exodus 21:20-21)

"Tell slaves to be submissive to their masters and to give satisfaction in every respect; they are not to talk back, not to pilfer, but to show complete and perfect fidelity, so that in everything they may be an ornament to the doctrine of God our Savior." (Titus 2:9-10)

"Let all who are under the yoke of slavery regard their masters as worthy of all honor, so that the name of God and the teaching may not be blasphemed. Those who have believing masters must not be disrespectful to them on the ground that they are members of the church; rather they must serve them all the more, since those who benefit by their service are believers and loved by God." (1 Timothy 6:1-2)

"A pregnant 14-year-old has told how having a baby is now regarded as "fashionable" among schoolgirls. Family campaigners said her comments showed how the government's Abstinence Only Programs had left teens with the "ridiculous but extremely worrying" misconception that having a child was no different to getting a new handbag. The Office for National Statistics revealed that the number of pregnancies among under-18s in 2005 was 39,683, up from the 35,400 recorded a decade ago." - Trendhunter Magazine

A Ray of Hope

"I agree that it says a great deal when states are actually turning down money from the federal government (for Abstinence Only Programs). It says that some states are not willing to use their children as pawns in a clearly religious arena. It says that some states are not willing to prostitute themselves for money in exchange for false data being fed to their children. It says that the truly ethical people of this country will not jeopardize the safety and well-being of our young people in order to further the deceitful, dangerous plans of a few malicious Crusaders." - S. "No one knows about that day or hour not even the angels in heaven, nor the son, but only the father. As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the son of man. For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving themselves to each other in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark; and they knew nothing about God's demise of them until his flood came and took them.
